From the Exalted Ruler

Happy October! As trees begin to turn, flowerpots make way for pumpkins on porches, talk of Halloween costumes and talk of football is heard. Fall is such a great season, with warm days and cool nights. Everyone should take a moment to look at the beauty we have here in Michigan. I invite you again to come out to the patio to enjoy a pop and a friendly conversation. By the time you read this the picnic table should be completely refinished. All the boards have been replaced and a new feature added to it. The bench in the front has been sanded, painted, and refinished. On a cool night come see the light that might be glowing. Thank you to the group of Elks that stepped in to get it done, donating their time and money. That's what I call Brotherly Love! Just getting it done!!

The King of Diamonds is off to a great start. Hopefully it rolls over for months to come. Thanks to Laurie for all the extra help selling tickets. Just think if each of us could sell between 5 and 20 tickets a week how much we can grow the jackpot. Ask a bartender for tickets if you can help out. Let's all grow the jackpot so we can do more Charity.

Hope to see you on the patio on a Monday for a burger or Sunday for a Lions game. Don't forget Trivia is back and breakfast is coming soon.

Fraternally yours,

Christie
